

THE TRUTH IS WEIRDER* MYTH-BUSTER KIT

*become a history detective

Ages 9-13

MYTH ON TRIAL

CASE FILE No.002 • SCANDINAVIA • c.800

EP 02

PUT THE HORNS AWAY

CASS SAYS...

Everyone KNOWS Vikings wore big horned helmets!

PIP CHECKS...

Hang on... nobody has ever dug one up. A costume designer drew the horns in 1876!

MYTH BUSTED!

Be a myth-buster in 3 steps

- 1 What do you think you know? Say the "fact" out loud.
- 2 Who told you, and how would they actually know it?
- 3 Go find the evidence. A real letter, a dig, a photo. No proof? Be suspicious.

Weird-but-true, or totally made up?

Circle your guess. Answers are upside down.

- 1 Ancient Romans shared one toilet sponge on a stick.
- 2 People in the Middle Ages thought the world was flat.
- 3 Honey found in ancient Egyptian tombs can still be eaten today.

ANSWERS : 1) WEIRD but TRUE, and yes, really. 2) Made up, they knew it was round. 3) WEIRD but TRUE, honey does not go off.

Your turn: draw the weirdest TRUE fact you know

Then put it on trial with the 3 steps. Can you prove it?